NOTICE TO THE BAR

Amicus Curiae Participation

On March 28, 2017, the Court of Appeals heard oral argument in Carlson v American International Group, Inc. By order dated April 4, 2017, the Court has directed the case to be reargued. The Court invites amicus curiae participation from those qualified and interested.

The appeal involves an insurance action to collect an unpaid judgment arising from an underlying wrongful death action as a result of a motor vehicle accident. The Appellate Division (130 AD3d 1477 [2015]; 130 AD3d 1479 [2015]) held that American International Group, Inc. did not “issue or deliver” an insurance policy in New York, thus precluding plaintiff from bringing suit against AAIC under Insurance Law § 3420(A)(2). The appeal also presents the issue of whether defendant DHL Express (USA), Inc. hired the vehicle involved in the motor vehicle accident, thereby implicating DHL’s hired auto insurance coverage.

Amicus motions must comply with section 500.23 of the Rules of the Court of Appeals. The Court’s Rules and access to the parties’ briefs and record material through the Court-PASS system is available on the Court’s website at: www.courts.state.ny.us/ctapps

Questions may be directed by telephone to the Clerk’s Office at (518) 455-7705.
