All uses of material posted on our website for the Oral History Project are covered by a signed agreement between subject, interviewers, and the Society. The information is thereby made available for purposes deemed suitable by the Society, including research and education. All copyrights and literary rights in the transcript, including the right to publish, are reserved to the Society. No portion of the material may be quoted for publication without the written permission of the Society.

Requests for permission should be emailed to the Society here. The request should identify (i) the user, (ii) the intended use of the materials, and (iii) the passages to be quoted.

It is recommended that this oral history be cited as “An Oral History of [name of Subject], conducted on [date] by [names of Interviewers], at [location] by The Historical Society of the Courts of the State of New York.”