

JUVENILE JUSTICE EDUCATION IN NYC: POLICIES, PLANNING, & PRACTICES

Timothy Lisante, PhD

Superintendent
District 79 Alternative Schools & Programs,
NYC Department of Education

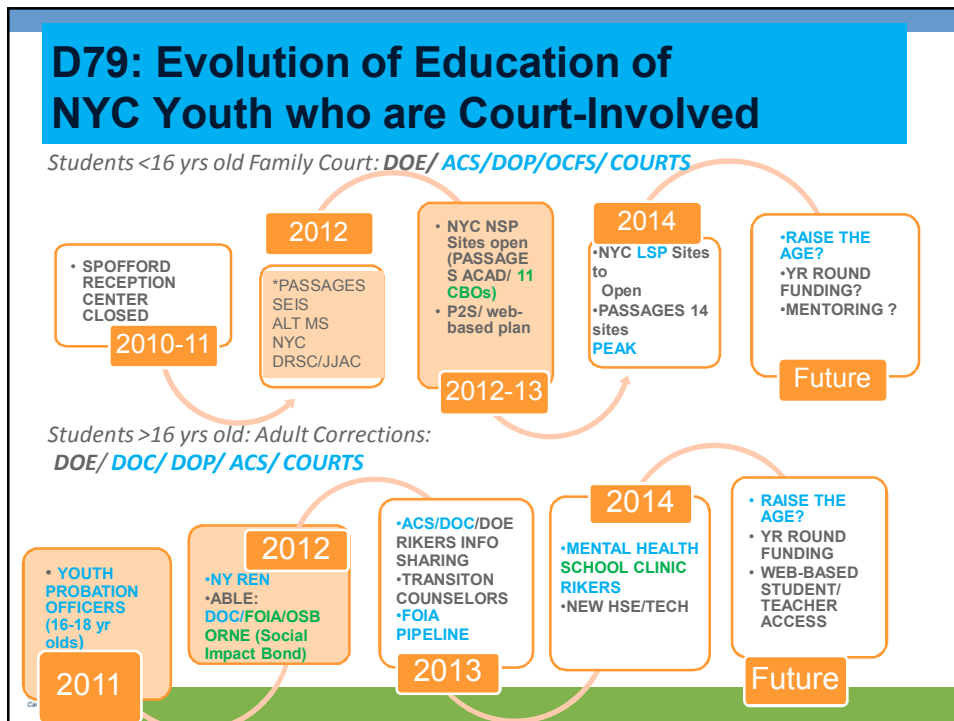

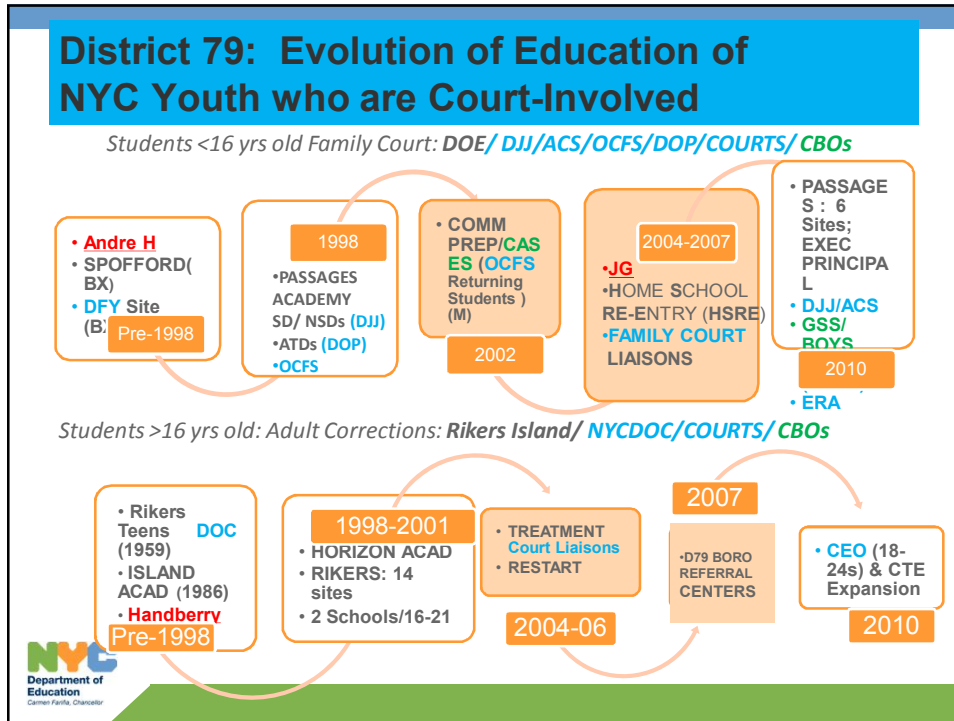

1

Workshop Goals

- * Participants will learn about District 79 programs and services as a basis of discussion surrounding court-involved, transitioning students.
- * Participants will learn about various models of policies, services, and tools that have led to increased success for transitioning students and discuss how these techniques can be replicated, utilized, and built upon.

2

A SUCCESSFUL TRANSITION :

- Pre Release Planning
- Proper Handoff
- After Care Support

City and District Policies

- * NYC Student Rights
- * Home School ReEntry
- * District 79 Transition Expectations

Student Rights

- *You are entitled to attend a full-time high school or high school program run by the NYC DOE until the end of the school year in which you turn 21
- *You have the right to re-enroll in high school at any time
- *You may not be barred from attending classes solely due to age (unless you are over 21 years old), lack of credits, poor grades, truancy, irregular attendance, or failure to pass Regents or RCT examinations
- *You are required to attend school until the end of the school year in which you turn 17
- *You have the right to refuse to be involuntarily transferred from a high school to a part-time education program
- *You have the right to receive notice of a suspension or involuntary transfer and an opportunity for a hearing or conference before being suspended or transferred to another school
- *If you are transferring to a HSE program or another school, you have the right to attend your current school until registered or enrolled at the new school or program
- *If you are an English Language Learner, you are entitled to bilingual education or an ESL program
- *Students determined to be in need of special education are entitled to free, appropriate education

These rights apply to all NYC students 21 and under.

Students have these rights even if they:

- Voluntarily dropped out
- Are currently enrolled in a HSE program
- Already have a HSE or IEP diploma
- Currently are or were in an involuntary setting, such as a correctional facility (Rikers Island or a New York state facility) or substance abuse program
- Have been subject to discipline by your school
- Currently are or were referred to alternative educational options, such as a HSE or vocational program

Home School ReEntry (HSRE)

- * Students all have the right to return to their prior school following discharge from the NYC public schools within one calendar year of discharge (JG Compliance and Chancellor's Regulations)
- * Students who are incarcerated or in juvenile detention in NYC, or in residential drug treatment programs, will be automatically returned to their home school register upon release

Transition Expectations

- * ALL students experience a high quality transition process which includes
 1. detailing goals, a plan, action steps, and a support network,
 2. support and advocacy, and
 3. enrollment in a supportive and appropriate educational setting.

9

District 79 Transition Practices

- * Transition Process and Advocates
- * Referral Centers
- * Court Liaisons
- * Community-Based and City-Agency Partnerships

10

Transition Process and Advocates

While at Program:

- * Students meet with a counselor upon arrival
- * Student and counselor decide on an academic path
- * Student and counselor complete a transition plan via ILP (Plan to Succeed), indicating support networks and educational next steps for when they transition from the program
- * Families/ support network are contacted and plan is shared
- * Students meet with an transition team member/advocate and/or a CBO representative

Who Are Transition Advocates?

Program staff that meet with students while enrolled in a District 79 program and help students navigate transitioning from one educational program to another. Transition advocates work with students, counselors, families/support networks, CBOs, etc. before and after a student transitions.

After Program:

- * Students returning to their home school (that were attending school prior to their arrest) are automatically reenrolled in school
- * Students not previously enrolled in school will visit a referral center to meet with a counselor and enroll in a program or school
- * Counselors and transition advocates will contact student to follow up on transition plan progress

Referral Centers for High School Alternatives

One-stop guidance centers helping students connect with DOE high schools, HSE programs, and other support services

- * District 79 has 5 Referral Centers, 1 in each borough of NYC
- * 4-6 Guidance Counselors per center
- * Help students understand their educational rights, discuss goals, and navigate educational options (such as HS, HSE program, YABC, transfer school*)
- * Provide referrals to other support services such as childcare, drug rehabilitation, ESL services, health clinics

SY14 Mid-Year:
RCs have served 5,582 students:
32% already had a DOE drop-out code
54% wanted to transfer as they are at-risk for dropping out
14% are new to DOE (primarily older ELLs)

Students came to RCs from 21 states and 79 countries!

Last year 8,314 came into the RCs

Court Liaisons

Assist court-involved students, their families, and the agencies that support them

- * Court Liaisons are located in 6 court houses across the 5 boroughs of NYC
- * Assist students in returning to school the day after release with no interruption to their education
- * Connect students with a counselor to help them understand the HSE process, high school alternatives, and college options
- * Help parents understand and advocate for their son or daughter's rights to DOE educational services and options

- * ILP (Plan to Succeed)
- * Community-Based Partnership Resources

Sample Transition Planning Tools

Student Passport

Plan to Succeed (Online ILP)

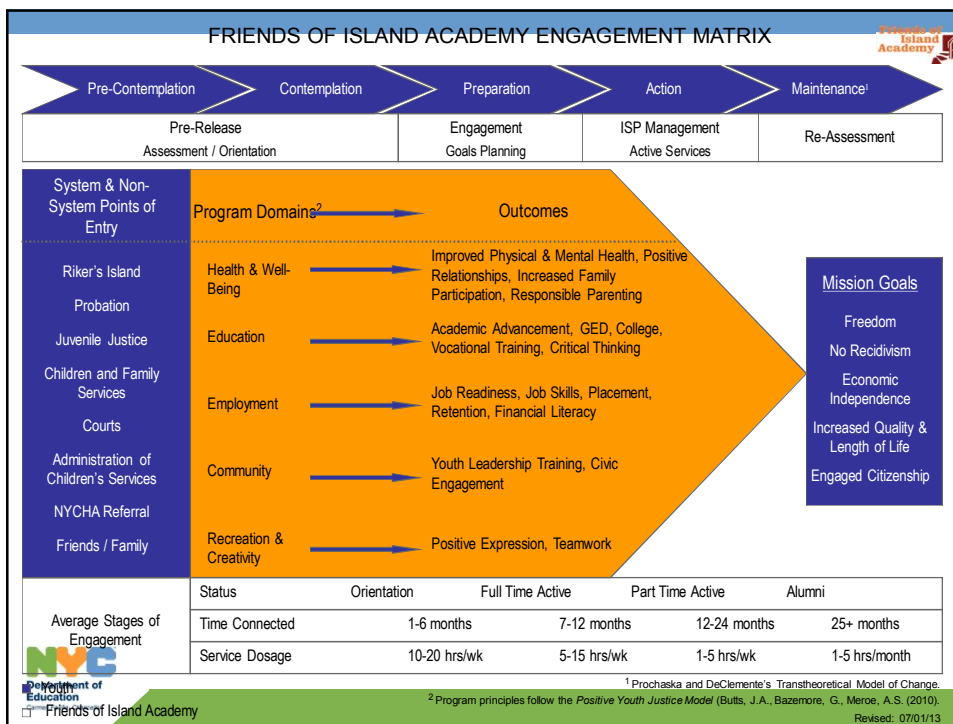

The image shows a sample Student Passport form from East River Academy. It includes sections for:

- Returning to Your Home School: Information for students returning to their home schools.
- Referral: A section for referrals, including a phone number (718) 801-8059 for support.
- Educational Opportunities: A list of various programs such as Transfer Schools, Young Adult Branch Centers, and Career Academies.
- Community Opportunities: A list of community-based organizations like the Center for Community Alternatives and the New York Reentry Education Network.

The image is a screenshot of the 'Plan to Succeed' website. The interface includes a navigation menu with options like 'CAREER PLANNING', 'HIGH SCHOOL PLANNING', 'COLLEGE PLANNING', and 'FINANCIAL AID PLANNING'. The main content area is titled 'Your Portfolio' and features several interactive components:

- GED PLUS & P: A section for GED Plus and P preparation.
- Your Profile: A section for creating a personal profile.
- Career Planning Portfolio: A section for exploring career options.
- College Planning Portfolio: A section for exploring college options.
- Financial Aid Planning Portfolio: A section for exploring financial aid options.
