ORDER

M-1193

Case No. 2020-1681

Ind. No. 3279/2018

An application having been made by the defendant, pursuant to CPL 245.70(6), for expedited review of a ruling of a Justice of the Supreme Court, New York County (Althea E. M. Drysdale, J.), as set forth in an order of that court, dated February 27, 2020, filed under seal, and, upon review, to modify or vacate the ruling,

Now, upon reading and filing the papers with respect to the motion, it is Ordered that the application is denied. The court providently exercised its discretion in holding an ex parte hearing pursuant to CPL 245.70(1) in view of the showing made by the People. Moreover, during that hearing, the People established good cause, based on the statutory factors set forth in CPL 245.70(4), to justify the protective order. In particular, the People demonstrated that, to the extent that any witnesses whose identity is being protected and who cooperated did so upon the representation made by law enforcement, based on the law then in effect, that the witness' identity and testimony would remain confidential up until the point that this case went to hearings and/or trial. Moreover, the People demonstrated that disclosure of some of the materials would provide at most a negligible benefit to defendant. It is further Ordered that the papers submitted by Ordered that the papers submitted by the People under seal shall be sealed by the Clerk of this Court.

Defendant having moved for leave to prosecute, as a poor person, the appeal taken from a judgment of the Supreme Court, New York County, rendered on or about May 14, 2019, for leave to have the appeal heard upon the original record and a reproduced appellant's brief, and for related relief,

Now, upon reading and filing the papers with respect to the motion, and due deliberation having been had thereon,

It is ordered that the motion is granted to the extent of permitting the appeal to be heard on the original record, except that a certified copy of the indictment(s) shall be substituted in place of the original indictment(s), and upon a reproduced appellant's brief, on condition that appellant serves one copy of such brief upon the District Attorney of said county and files an original, five hard copies and, if represented by counsel, one digital copy of such brief, together with the original record, pursuant to Section 1250.9 of the Practice Rules of the Appellate Division.

The court reporter shall promptly make and file with the criminal court (CPL §460.70) one transcript of the stenographic minutes of any proceedings pursuant to CPL §210.20, Arts. 710 and 730, and of the plea or trial and sentence. The Clerk shall furnish a copy of such transcripts to appellant's counsel, without charge, the transcripts to be returned to this Court when appellant's brief is filed.

Janet E. Sabel, Esq., The Legal Aid Society, 199 Water Street, 5th Floor, New York, New York 10038, Telephone No. 212-577-3688, is assigned as counsel for defendant-appellant for purposes of the appeal. The time within which appellant shall perfect this appeal is hereby enlarged until 180 days from the date of receipt of the complete record.
